

ACTION FOR JUSTICE
in collaboration with
RESISTANCE CINEMA and THE ANTI-RACISM TEAM
invites you to a FORUM with
PROFESSOR SAMUEL E. ANDERSON
SUNDAY MARCH 21, 2010, 1pm
Community Church of NYC, 40 East 35th St. @ park Ave.
ADMISSION: Free

“THE 411 FOR EDUCATION AND RACISM”

Professor Samuel E. Anderson is an activist-teacher-writer native of Brooklyn's Bed-Stuy. He has recently taught at NYU's Gallatin School. He was for five years, the Education Director at Medgar Evers College's Center for Law & Social Justice.

Professor Anderson has taught mathematics at Queens College, Sarah Lawrence College, SUNY at Old Westbury College, Rutgers University and the New School University as well as CCNY & Queens Colleges' Centers for Worker Ed. He is also a math/science consultant within the African American education community from public schools to the university.

One of the founding members of the Black Panther Party as well as an activist within the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Black Arts Movement of the Sixties, he became one of the first Black Studies directors in 1969 when he was hired to chair Sarah Lawrence College's Black Studies program. He is currently active with Black New Yorkers for Educational Excellence (BNYEE), and the Independent Commission on Public Education in NYC (ICOPE),

He is the author of The Black Holocaust for Beginners (Writers & Readers), and also co-authored with French Physicist Maurice Bazin a two volume work entitled The Third World Confronts Science & Technology (Livros Horizonte- Portugal, 1976) and, with Tony Medina, edited the award winning In Defense of Mumia (Writers & Readers).