

AN AUTHENTIC AMERICAN HERO - COLONEL ANN WRIGHT

Discusses her new book

DISSENT: VOICES OF CONSCIENCE

Bluestockings Bookstore

172 Allen st. between Stanton
Rivington sts.

212-777-6028

Thursday, January 31st @ 7PM -

Admission: Free

Army Colonel Ann Wright resigned as deputy ambassador to Mongolia in protest to the Bush administration's decision to go to war in Iraq without the authorization of the UN Security Council. In "Dissent: Voices of Conscience," she tells the stories of other government insiders and military personnel who risked their careers and their freedom to expose the Bush administration's misdeeds. Wright provides us with a voluble collection of the stories of modern patriots who stood up and spoke truth to power.