In these times of crisis is change possible?

Sparked by what Ghandi called "soul force" and Martin Luther King called "love in action," acclaimed filmmaker, Velcrow Ripper, spotlights remarkable individuals who are taking action from the heart. Fierce Light: When Spirit Meets Action is the revelation of a new global "movement of movements," illuminating the power that is released for positive change when spirituality meets action and human beings act from their absolute best. <http://www.fiercelight.org>
