The Rev. Mark Morrison-Reed served as co-minister of Unitarian Universalists congregations in Rochester, New York, and Toronto with his wife, the Rev. Donna Morrison-Reed. Dr. Morrison-Reed's doctoral thesis BLACK PIONEERS IN A WHITE DENOMINATION, was published in 1984 and is required reading for everyone preparing for the UU ministry. He is author or editor of several books, including BLACK PIONEERS IN A WHITE DENOMINATION and IN BETWEEN: MEMOIR OF AN INTEGRATION BABY as well as editor of a new meditation manual, Voices From The Margins.

Among his current projects, he is working with Meadville Lombard Theological School to organize and build the library's archive of materials relating to African American involvement in Universalism, Unitarianism and Unitarian Universalism, and writing a book about how and why UUs became involved in Selma in 1965.
