GLEN FORD

“THE CORPORATE ASSAULT ON PUBLIC EDUCATION”

“In the space of less than 20 years, the public school privatization "movement" emerged from the narrow, right-wing fringes to dominate both major political parties. The issue has divided even Black Americans, who were once public education's most fervent supporters”.

Glen Ford is a veteran of more than 40 years in broadcast, print and Internet journalism. A former Washington Bureau Chief and White House, Capitol Hill, and State Department correspondent, he is currently executive editor of BAR, Black Agenda Report, (BlackAgendaReport.com) a weekly magazine of news, commentary and analysis from the Black left. Along with co-host Nellie Hester Bailey, Ford hosts and produces the weekly, one-hour Black Agenda Radio program on the Progressive Radio network
