

JOEL KOVEL

PSYCHIATRIST,
PROFESSOR OF SOCIAL STUDIES
BARD COLLEGE

AUTHOR OF “OVERCOMING ZIONISM”

“ISRAEL AT 60”

SPEAKING

SUNDAY, APRIL 13TH, 1 pm
COMMUNITY CHURCH OF NEW YORK
40 EAST 35TH ST. (BET. PARK & MADISON)

Joel Kovel has been engaged in struggles for peace and justice since the Vietnam War era. He has worked within the antiwar and antinuclear movements, the solidarity movements in Central America and the Caribbean, the movements for democratic media, and, increasingly, for ecological transformation. He accompanied Pastors for Peace as they broke the US blockade on Cuba in their 1994 Friendshipment. He has acted in films, worked frequently with the Bread and Puppet theatre, and lectured on four continents.

He has published nine books and over a hundred articles and reviews. His books include White Racism, which was nominated for a National Book Award. Others include Against the State of Nuclear Terror; In Nicaragua; The Radical Spirit; History and Spirit; Red Hunting in the Promised Land, a study of anticommunist repression in America; and The Enemy of Nature: The End of Capitalism or The End of the World.

FREE – OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

SPONSORED BY THE ACTION FOR JUSTICE COMMITTEE,
COMMUNITY CHURCH OF NEW YORK,
INFORMATION: 212-777-7499