This year ACTION FOR JUSTICE of Community Church of NYC in Collaboration with RESISTANCE CINEMA has dedicated its energies to exploring the Israeli Palestine conflict. As a follow-up to the March 9th screening of PEACE, PROPAGANDA, AND THE PROMISED LAND, Isabel MacDonald of FAIR has been invited to further elaborate on the theme of U.S. media treatment of this issue.

Isabel Macdonald is the communications director at FAIR. Before she started working at FAIR in June 2007, she was involved with social justice, labor and media activism in Toronto, Canada. Her work has been published on znet, This Magazine, Upping the Anti, The Dominion, and the Haiti Information Project website. She is currently working on a book based on her M.A. thesis (from York University, Toronto) on the international press' complicity in the 2004 coup d'etat in Haiti.
