

Median wages are declining while Wall Street bonuses are rising. The economy is not working for the average person. It doesn't have to be this way. Our panel of experts will explore alternative economic models, and what we can do to transform the economy.

IT'S OUR MONEY

Making the Economy Work for Us

Wednesday, October 30, 2013

7:00 pm — 9:30 pm

All Souls Unitarian Church

Reidy Friendship Hall

1157 Lexington Ave. (at 80th St.), NYC

With

Richard D. Wolff

Professor of Economics Emeritus U. Mass, Amherst and Visiting Professor at The New School

Marc Armstrong

Executive Director, Public Banking Institute

Omar Freilla

Founder and Coordinator, Green Worker Cooperatives

Alexis Goldstein

Organizer, the Other 98%

Moderated by

J.A. Myerson

Independent journalist, activist, and author

Sponsored by

Big Apple Coffee Party and All Souls Peace & Justice Task Force

Free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. Donations appreciated.

*For information and to rsvp:
212-252-2619 or bigapplecoffeeparty@gmail.com*