

TIM WISE IN PERSON

Tim Wise (born October 4, 1968 in Nashville, Tennessee) is among the most prominent anti-racist writers and activists in the U.S., and has been called, "One of the most brilliant, articulate and courageous critics of white privilege in the nation," by best-selling author and professor Michael Eric Dyson, of Georgetown University. Wise has spoken in 48 states, and on over 400 college campuses. He has provided anti-racism training to community groups, teachers nationwide, physicians and medical industry professionals, corporate, government, entertainment, military and law enforcement officials on methods for dismantling racism in their various forms and institutions.

Wise is the author of White Like Me: Reflections on Race from a Privileged Son; Affirmative Action: Racial Preference in Black and White; Speaking Treason Fluently: Anti-Racist Reflections From an Angry White Male, and Between Barack and a Hard Place: Race and Whiteness in the Age of Obama.
